

MOVEMENT ON THE GROUND

Confidential advisors

MOTG has trained confidential advisors who are available to all our staff and volunteers to talk about any issues that may affect them or the organization. These conversations are completely confidential and could be about anything. Their role is to give advice and help our staff and volunteers to find the adequate solutions when facing a problem of any kind. They are not directly part of the reporting process and will not take actions themselves. They are here to support our staff and volunteers in finding the right procedures, for example, putting in contact with further actors, explaining the reporting system, etc. and making sure all staff and volunteers are able to pursue their daily work without facing further issues. In case legal advice is needed, the confidential advisor will refer you to the appropriate person. In the unlikely case that what is discussed may be a crime against a person, if not reported, the confidential advisors have the responsibility to report this to the relevant authorities.

At MOTG, the individuals fulfilling the role of Confidential Advisors are as follows:

- Kane Daniell – Country representative Greece based in Athens
- Ali Shams Eddin - Camp to CampUs programme lead based in Amsterdam
- Mila de Wit - Coordinator based in the Netherlands
- Stephan Gathier - Coordinator based in the Netherlands
- Anouk Leroy - Coordinator based in Lesvos

you can contact the confidential advisors by sending an e-mail to:
